

THE OWOSSO TIMES.

VOL. XXI, NO. 37

OWOSSO, MICHIGAN, DEC. 8, 1899.

WHOLE NO. 1077

THOME & FRISBIE'S

TWO WEEKS

Big Special Shoe Sale,

Begins Saturday Morning, Dec. 9th, continues till Saturday Eve., Dec. 23.

BARGAINS FOR EVERYBODY.

Thome & Frisbie, FAMILY FOOTWEAR

Opera House Corner, OWOSSO.

BOOKS for CHILDREN.

We have the finest and largest line of Books for Children, ranging in price to suit all purchasers, ever shown in Shiawassee county. We also have the biggest line of up-to-date Books for older people, the latest and best at the lowest prices ever heard of.

OUR LINE OF NOVELTIES

And things appropriate for Christmas gifts is the fullest and most varied to be found anywhere in Owosso. Here are some hints: Pictures (a large line to select from), Bibles of Famous Authors, Booklets, Bibles, Prayer Books, Hymnals, new Standard Diaries, Calendars for 1900.

VAN DUSEN,

118 North Washington St., Owosso, Mich.

Soft Coal!

The Cheapest Fuel Known

Is burnt with entire satisfaction in the

FOSTER SLACK BURNER.

Guaranteed to give satisfaction.

NO SOOT! NO SMOKE!

All the unpleasant features of old methods of burning Soft Coal removed.

Call and see it and buy one and save the price of the Stove the first season.

IRA C. CURRY, HARDWARE. 113 E. Main St.

THIS IS THE TIME OF YEAR WHEN YOU WILL BE LOOKING FOR SOME-THING FOR A

CHRISTMAS GIFT

and we respectfully ask you to come in and look over our new line of FURNITURE, which is strictly up-to-date.

Goods delivered when you want them.

FOSTER FURNITURE CO.

Furniture and Undertaking,

Opposite Postoffice,

Owosso, Mich.

Southwest New Haven:

Mr. Cyrus Orser has returned from a visit with friends in Canada—Miss Reba Moot began attending school at Owosso last Monday—Mrs. John Butcher of this vicinity died very suddenly last Friday of hemorrhage of the lungs. She leaves a husband and two children besides many friends to mourn her loss. The funeral was held in the Wesleyan church last Tuesday—Miss Dora Hopson, of Easton, is visiting her cousin, Miss Nora Hopson—A party was given at Mr. E. Pearsall's Tuesday night.

Carland.

Wm. Scott has commenced work at his feed mill—Four candidates received the ordinance of baptism at the M. P. church Sunday, and seven were added to the membership—Miss Lottie Bailey is visiting friends here—Mrs. Derry, of Detroit, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Richmond—Prayer meeting at the M. P. church Wednesday evening, also meeting Friday evening—Mr. and Mrs. Dyre Carroll, of Chapin, were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Green, Sunday—L. Waters' home is nearly completed—Chas. Green is home, having finished his work for Mr. Reed, of Bennington.

Chapin.

Mrs. Frisby, of Ohio, visited her nephew, C. M. Loyne and family, Thanksgiving—The ghost social held at the hall Friday evening was well attended—Anson Carroll and wife spent Thursday in Brant—Elder Hopkins preached at the Disciple church Thanksgiving—Miss Mayne Odell spent Sunday with Miss Alta Carroll—Mrs. Millie Gibson is visiting relatives at Brant—Revival meetings are in progress at the Methodist church—Elder Myres is holding revival meetings at the Fairfield U. B. church—Dr. and Mrs. Haun spent Thanksgiving day in Chesaning and their little granddaughter, Neva, accompanied them home—Dr. Noble and Bennie Glasser were in Owosso Saturday.

Caledonia.

Miss Millie Watterman is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Campbell, southeast of Corunna—Miss Anna Kelly, of Owosso, returned home yesterday after spending a few days with friends and relatives—C. H. Markham has nearly completed his house—A. Patchel and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Willis, of Corunna—C. D. Foster and family entertained friends from Lansingburg last week—F. L. Rossman returned home yesterday after spending a few weeks in the country. He will go north shortly—Com. O. L. Bristol visited the Kelly school one day last week—Miss Rosa Race, of Owosso, is visiting her brother Riley Race—C. Kelly is preparing to build a horse barn—G. Burger will work the Smith farm next year.

Union Plains.

I. L. Mills lost a valuable cow Monday—George and Lule Harder and Mattie Mills went to Owosso Monday—As Charles Drake was taking a load of wood to Bancroft for Frank Cole, on Friday, the front stakes of the wood-rack broke letting the wood fall on the horses. They became frightened and ran. Disengaging themselves from the wagon, they ran about a mile before being caught. The boy's leg became entangled with one of the wheels and was broken in two places. The accident happened near his mother's home, where he was taken and cared for. The wagon was completely demolished—Mrs. B. S. Fosket and Mrs. B. F. Miller visited in Deerfield Friday—John Carl will move his family to Byron—Lorenzo Cheney and wife visited friends in Fenton last week.

Oakley.

Hay is moving quite lively. Mr. Geo. Carson, in the employ of L. Thomas, of Hemlock, is here loading two cars, and Mr. A. H. Northway, of the firm of Todd & Co., of Owosso, is also here loading hay—The fish wagon is on the move again—We are having quite cold weather now. It froze ice nearly an inch thick—Produce still continues to come in—Mrs. Jacob Armstrong has been on the sick list this week—Our new barber shop is doing quite a nice business under the management of Mr. Valentine, formerly of Owosso—Peter Forbes feels quite proud of his new stove. He has one of the new Garland No. 50, slack burner—Rev. Crane is at Chapin this week engaged in revivals meetings—The Ladies' Aid Society met at Mrs. John Citerly's Wednesday afternoon. There was a very good attendance—Fred Speigle is putting a new engine in his grist mill which requires quite an overhauling of the engine room, as the new engine is very much larger than the old one.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature on every box 25c.

Lennon.

Miss Lizzie Lawcock, of Venice, who has been visiting friends in the state of New York has returned home—Miss Grace Deyo who teaches in the Martin district gave a social Wednesday for the benefit of the school—Geo. Koan and Will Muzzy, of Venice township, shipped a large quantity of poultry to the Boston market last week—Roy Priest and Claude Young who are students at the University, spent Thanksgiving with their parents in Venice township.

New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cutter ate Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mrs. Cutter's parents and after dinner was over were made happy by being presented by the parents with an organ—After coming home from town Saturday afternoon Rev. J. D. Bennett went to his study to write but soon complained of being unable to write and a few minutes later on being called to dinner was scarcely able to say that he could not come and when Mrs. Bennett went to see him he was unable to speak and died in a few moments.

New Lothrop.

James Fee was in Flint on Monday—Wm. Avery was in Flushing Monday—Wm. Petty, of Linwood, spent Sunday in town—David Thompson, of Belding, is visiting friends in town—Geo. Wood and J. H. Clark were in Detroit Thursday—Several of our Masons went to Byron Thursday to attend a Masonic meeting there—Rev. C. England has moved the house at the rear of his shop to a lot on Ash street, purchased of A. McKay—Rev. Phillip Shoemaker, of South Haven, visited his brother, Dr. Shoemaker, Sunday. In the absence of the pastor he filled the pulpit at the M. P. church.

Perry.

Mrs. C. L. Wells, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. T. Johnston, returned home Saturday—Miss Katie Hammond, who spent last week in Owosso, returned home Sunday—Emmet Thompson went to Jackson Saturday. He expects to spend the winter there with his mother—Mrs. Will Hammond and little son, Clara, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Wm. Starks, two and one-half miles south of this place, returned to her home in Owosso Sunday—Elva Fulton is in Owosso for a few days—Frank Fulton went to Owosso Sunday. He expects to work there for Will Hammond who lives on the R. P. Bigelow farm—Lew Pierce went to Homer, N. Y., Saturday to visit his brothers for a few weeks—Little Florence Ward died Monday after a short illness—Little Betsy and Henry Griffen, who have been very low, are no better—Miss Lydia Greenwalt, who has been attending the Perry high school, has returned to her home in Bennington—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spalding spent their Thanksgiving in Flint visiting Mrs. Spalding's aunt and uncle—Miss Emma Rann, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. R. Spalding, has returned to her home in Locke.

Barton.

A. J. Vincent, of Mt. Pleasant, was in town Friday of last week calling on old friends—Mrs. J. Potter attended the funeral of Mrs. Jennie Taylor, of Ovid, Friday of last week—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Mason each entertained a large company of relatives and friends Thanksgiving—The Ladies' Aid Society will meet next Tuesday at ten o'clock a. m. at the M. P. parsonage—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith returned from their visit at Stockbridge, Friday of last week—Born, Friday, Dec. 1st, to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ackroyd, a daughter—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Potter, of Ovid, spent Thanksgiving with his brother, John Potter, and family—Mrs. Susan Wright has been quite ill of late—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Eckart, of Brady, and Miss Estella Hubbell, of Owosso, were guests of Miss Sarah McWilliams one day last week—Mrs. George Jenkins, of Fenton, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Bailey from Saturday until Monday—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stiff entertained Mrs. Alice Gilchrist, of Toledo, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Simpson and Mrs. Susan Hall at dinner, Friday of last week—Mrs. Eliza Glover will spend a few weeks with the family of J. A. Ackroyd—Mr. and Mrs. John Cook, of Owosso, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Stanlake—It is reported that John Fisher has rented Charles Baker's farm north of this place and will move some time in the near future—Edmund R. Vincent, town clerk of Middlebury, has moved to his farm, and all parties wishing to do business with him will know where to find him—Charles Rose returned to Lansing, Monday, after several days visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rose.

Kerby.

Miss Rachel Evans, of Corunna, visited friends in Kerby over Sunday—Miss Grace Deyo and school, of Venice, gave a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hannah, Friday evening, Nov. 30th. Proceeds amounted to over $12, and are to go for a school library—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Parker and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Young spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Parker, of Flint—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Derham visited friends in Saginaw and Sebawainy last week—Miss Jennie Chaffee spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Pontiac—The Kerby Sunday school will give a social at the residence of Mr. Salmon's, Friday evening, Dec. 8—Miss Letta Chaffee is on the sick list—John Vedder is very low with rheumatism of the heart—Presiding Elder Sweet preached here Sunday—Mrs. Noa, who has been taking care of her mother, Mrs. Kerby, returned home Saturday—Mrs. Goodel, of Novi, will spend the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Kerby.

West Fairfield.

Henry Van Deusen and family spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Van Deusen's father, Mr. Scott, in Carland—Mr. and Mrs. T. Haire entertained Rev. N. L. Brass and family on Thanksgiving day—Mrs. George Hoisington went to Alma the first of last week and, on Wednesday had an operation performed but had not strength to rally from it and passed away on Saturday. They brought her home on Saturday evening. She was buried from the F. W. Baptist church on Monday afternoon, Rev. A. H. Whittaker, of Jackson, officiating. She leaves a husband and three daughters to mourn her loss. The family formerly lived in Fairfield and moved from here to Elsie two or three months ago—Jas. Cushman has broken one of his legs—Monday Nov. 27, 1899, being the tenth anniversary of the marriage of Frank and Eunice Bennett, about 35 of their relatives assembled at their home in north Fairfield to celebrate the occasion. A pleasant social time was enjoyed till dinner was announced and after partaking of a bountiful repast the guests departed leaving some beautiful and useful tokens of their regard.

Olney.

A dance Thanksgiving eve at Le Roy Allen's was participated in by those husking corn in the afternoon of that day for Mr. Allen—The Maccabees, of Chapin and vicinity held a social at Mr. Joe Dunlap's north of Olney on Thanksgiving night, and enjoyed a very sociable time—Wm. Holden lost a good work horse one day last week from the colic and other resulting complications—Geo. Streeter and Wash Hanes returned from hunting last week, the results being one bear and a deer. The boys say that they are going back again in February to hunt bear as they are quite numerous—Warve May has moved his ashery outfit up near Perrinton, where he will in the future make potash—Mark Emmert is in the upper peninsula working in a lumber camp. Good wages are reported—Dave Campbell's auction, the 29th, was pretty well attended—Aaron Baker has lately shingled his kitchen, making it appear very neat—Would you believe it? Pansies were picked in the open garden by Mrs. Mary Day on Thanksgiving morning; while we (in our garden) noticed some lettuce self seeded nearly an inch across—Mr. De Groat's two children at home, are now very sick with measles; the boy mentioned last week being able to navigate again—Wm. Hartwick's father, an old and respected citizen residing with him as an invalid for the last five or six seasons died at the ripe old age of eighty eight years, last Friday Funeral services were held at the Dunkard church on Sunday at 2 p. m.—Our mail route is soon to be changed; coming in the future from Elsie, instead of Oakley—Geo. Somers has made extensive repairs on his house and yard, and the place now assumes a pleasant appearance—A ghost (not spook) social for the youngsters was held at the I. O. O. F. hall, at Chapin, Friday evening; of course they had a good time. Who wouldn't see in' hobboblins—Miss Della Burch has been working as a nurse at the city hospital, Ypsilanti, this season, but is now visiting her parents through the holidays, after which she will return—We had an unexpected caller night before last, the same being Mr. Winter. He gave us a very cool introduction and promises to stay with us three months at least.

The Modern Mother

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Laingburg.

Several of the Masons spent Thanksgiving day with others of their order in Byron—Mrs. Helen Rockwell, of Illinois, who has been spending several weeks with Mrs. C. E. Hollister, left for Lansing this week—Messrs. Herbert Simpson and Jay Sexton were home from Olivet college for the Thanksgiving vacation—Mrs. W. E. Ward and children returned to Owosso Monday—J. W. Tillitson spent Thanksgiving in Detroit—Our little village seems to be the stamping ground for a variety of lighting apparatus. Acetylene was put into several places of business a few years ago but gives poor satisfaction. Recently two different kinds of the gasoline hanging lamp have supplied a large number of stores and residences with a very satisfactory light, and now the latest is a gasoline light resembling an electric arc light with which the firm is trying to hook-wink the city fathers into supplying the streets at twenty-five dollars each—Miss Clara Hinman, of the Agricultural College spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. E. B. H. Wyckoff—The pastor, may if things go on as at present, be able to enlarge some on the horse yards of "David Harum" in the course of a month or two. He is contemplating buying horse flesh—Mr. and Mrs. Will Gardner, of Middleville, and Mrs. Ed Burke, of Lansing, are guests of friends in town this week.

Byron.

William Lusk, of Owosso, spent Thanksgiving in Byron, under the parental roof, and returned to Owosso Saturday—F. B. Devore returned Friday from his trip north, selling horses—Mrs. William Wadley is quite sick again—Mr. and Mrs. Brandt, of Flint, ate Thanksgiving turkey with Mrs. H. E. Cole—Byron Lodge F. and A. M. entertained more than a hundred visitors from neighboring lodges Thursday. Four candidates were given the third degree. A banquet was served in the evening, furnished by the Epworth League—Mr. and Mrs. Sharpe, of Perry, spent Thanksgiving with T. A. Lawrie and family—Clifford Bishop was home from Ann Arbor and Everette Orr from Detroit last week—Noah Joslin visited friends in Holly last week—Mrs. J. T. Emmett and daughter, Lucille, of Howell, ate turkey at the parental home in Byron—Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Stark spent Thanksgiving with her parents in Howell—The M. E. Ladies' Aid and Epworth League realized nearly a hundred dollars for meals Thursday—Revival meetings are being held at the Baptist church. Rev. W. H. Johnson, of Ovid, is assisting the pastor—William Burgess, of Hazlett Park, was in Byron Thursday—Mrs. Susan Hyatt, of Linden, is a guest at A. Hyatt's at present—John Carl has moved from I. L. Mills' to Byron, and now occupies the Sweet house in the north part of the village.

November Disbursements.

County Treasurer Kay paid out the following orders in November: County, $548.49; poor, $670.71; witness, $55.49; juror, $13.25; sparrow, $56.20; building, $459.49; soldier's relief, $24.75; poor house building, $4,761.07; drain, $136.97.

From now until Jan. 1st we will make our $4.00 photographs for $3.00. Fancy frames and mouldings always on hand at McLean & Schable's.

16 Buggies

TO CLOSE OUT IMMEDIATELY. CALL ON A. T. PHILLIPS,

215 West Exchange street, OWOSSO, - MICHIGAN

HOLIDAY STOCK

Is Now Ready.

And everybody who sees the beautiful display, full of quality, variety and good taste can find it an easy task to select from it.

Remember this splendid assortment contains Watches, Diamond Rings, Ladies' and Gents' Chain Charms, Pins, Silver Novelties, Silverware and Clocks in endless varieties at Prices Absolutely the Lowest.

Finest Engraving. Best Optical Work.

F. B. HOLMAN,

119 West Exchange St., OWOSSO, MICH.